THE NO-STRESS ADVENT CALENDAR PRINTABLE PACK

Thank you so much for purchasing the No-Stress Advent Calendar Printable Pack!

After searching for a stress-free approach to advent to use in my own home, and coming up empty-handed, I decided to design my own.

How to Use This Printable Pack:

The Advent Calendar can be used in a variety of ways. I printed mine on cardstock and put it in a frame (it prints at 8.5" x 11" and I trimmed mine to fit into an 8" x 10" frame). I'm writing our advent activities on the frame's glass with a dry erase marker. This turns it into an instant dry erase board! I'm just writing our activities over the date with the marker, and if something changes (like someone getting sick!), all I have to do is erase it and move our plans to another date. Love it!

There's no stress about having to change the plans, because the dry erase marker isn't permanent. This really relieves a lot of stress for me.

Also included is a set of round advent tags or labels. You can use these however you wish. Print them off on cardstock (or regular paper), and use them to label wrapped books (for a picture book advent plan), or use them to label paper bags filled with a craft or a treat for that day.

And finally, I've also included a set of Advent Bible Reading Cards. This is the plan we're using this year for our advent readings. I printed mine on cardstock, and each one will go in a numbered muslin drawstring bag. Each night we'll take one out and read the Bible verses and light the appropriate number of candles.

We use a standard advent wreath with four tapered candles and one larger pillar candle in the center. The tapered candles are lit first, and then the pillar candle is lit, along with the other candles, on the final night.

THE NO-STRESS ADVENT CALENDAR PRINTABLE PACK

I hope this simple set of Advent printables is a blessing to you and helps to take a little of the stress out of this busy but beautiful season.

Enjoy a peaceful advent with your family, as we celebrate the birth of Christ!
